

the Magistrate Judge or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b). The court reviews the Report only for clear error in the absence of an objection. See Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (stating that “in the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.”) (citation omitted).

After reviewing the record of this matter, the applicable law, the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, and Plaintiff’s objections, the court agrees with the conclusions of the Magistrate Judge. Accordingly, the court adopts and incorporates the Report and Recommendation by reference in this Order. Plaintiff’s objections to the Report fail to provide sufficient argument, legal or factual, to overcome the findings and recommendation of the Report.

Accordingly, Plaintiff’s motion for summary judgment is denied. Plaintiff’s claims for injunctive relief and declaratory relief relating to certain conditions of confinement at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center are dismissed as moot. Defendants’ motion for summary judgment is granted and this matter is dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
